

While I am generally opposed to weakening any infrastructure in the name of law enforcement, I do support some type of wiretap initiative... but not this. The problem with the proposed bill is the circumvention of traditional means for acquiring a tap and the vehicle one creates for unlawful interception of "secure" communications.